ADAPTIVE ROCK CLIMBING CLINIC

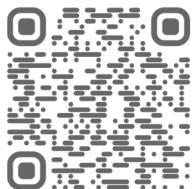

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2023
1:00–4:30 P.M.

401 E. 4th Street | Bridgeport, PA 19405

You're invited to join us for an afternoon of fun at Reach Climbing & Fitness in Bridgeport, PA. Activities will include adaptive rock climbing, yoga, and fitness training. Volunteers from the Pennsylvania Center for Adaptive Sports will be on-hand to provide adaptive rock climbing equipment and group instruction.

This is a free event for adaptive athletes, their family and friends, and all individuals at any level of ability/disability. Complimentary adaptive climbing equipment will be provided during the event. We also welcome those looking to help with the event as volunteers. Refreshments will be provided.
